Enrichment Programs

Georgetown University is offering pre-college programs for high school students. The programs offered are for college credit (6-12 weeks) or for enrichment (1–4 weeks). College credit courses are offered in medicine, cybersecurity, the business of sports, and more. Enrichment options include creative writing, entrepreneurship, nursing, and many other courses. For more information and for application details, students should visit the pre-college program site.

Applications for Brown University’s pre-college programs are now open. Brown offers over 300 different programs to choose from. The final application deadline is May 8, 2026, but decisions are released on a rolling basis. For further information on programs and the application process, please visit their pre-college program site.

Salve Regina University is offering a summer pre-college program for future leaders and changemakers. The Summer Institute of Politics is offered through their Pell Center for International Relations and Public Policy. The program is for one week and exposes students to the big issues of today and opportunities to make change through politics. For more information, visit the Summer Institute of Politics site. All applications are due by April 1.

Denison University Summer TUTTI performing arts camp is now accepting applications. The Summer TUTTI program is an eight-day intensive in dance, music, musical theatre, and theatre. Students are guided by Denison professors as well as nationally-acclaimed professional artists and ensembles. The deadline to apply is March 1. For more information, please visit the Summer TUTTI program site.

Bucknell University announced its Bucknell Academy Summer Experience (BASE), which is taking place in June. The deadline to apply is March 14. This year’s theme is human-centered communication in a digital era. Students will work together to tackle real-world challenges. For further information, visit the BASE site.
